On September 20, 2024, Jennifer Burandt (“petitioner”) filed a petition on behalf of her minor child, F.B., seeking compensation under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-1 to 34, as amended, alleging that F.B. suffered the Vaccine Injury Table injury of intussusception after receiving a rotavirus vaccine administered on October 6, 2021. ECF No. 1. On April 7, 2025, respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he conceded that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. ECF No. 17. Based upon the evidence of record, respondent proffers, and the parties recommend that compensation be made through a lump sum and future annuity payments as described below, and request that the Special Master’s decision and the Court’s judgment award the following:

¹ This Proffer does not include attorneys’ fees and costs, which the parties intend to address after the Damages Decision is issued.

A. Past Unreimbursable Expenses

Evidence supplied by petitioner documents her expenditure of past unreimbursable expenses on behalf of F.B., related to F.B.'s vaccine-related injury. Respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded past unreimbursable expenses in the amount of $2,443.35, to be paid through an ACH deposit to petitioner's counsel's IOLTA account for prompt disbursement to petitioner. Petitioner agrees.

The parties further agree that the annuity payments cannot be assigned, accelerated, deferred, increased, or decreased by the parties and that no part of any annuity payments called for herein, nor any assets of the United States or the annuity company, are subject to execution or any legal process for any obligation in any manner. Petitioner and petitioner's heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns do hereby agree that they have no power or right to sell, assign, mortgage, encumber, or anticipate said annuity payments, or any part thereof, by assignment or otherwise, and further agree that they will not sell, assign, mortgage, encumber, or anticipate said annuity payments, or any part thereof, by assignment or otherwise.

³ The Life Insurance Company must have a minimum of $250,000,000 capital and surplus, exclusive of any mandatory security valuation reserve. The Life Insurance Company must have one of the following ratings from two of the following rating organizations:

- a. A.M. Best Company: A++, A+, A+g, A+p, A+r, or A+s;
- b. Moody's Investor Service Claims Paying Rating: Aa3, Aa2, Aa1, or Aaa;

Should F.B. predecease payment of any of the certain lump sum payments set forth above, said payments shall be made to her estate.⁴ Written notice to the Secretary of Health and Human Services and to the Life Insurance Company shall be provided within twenty (20) days of F.B.'s death.
